WALTON COUNTY SUPERVISOR OF ELECTIONS AND STAFF TO ATTEND ANNUAL SUMMER F.S.A.S.E. CONFERENCE

DeFuniak Springs, FL (May 29, 2009) – Walton County Supervisor of Elections, Bobby Beasley, and members of his staff are preparing for this year's annual summer FSASE conference in St. Augustine. Staff members attending the courses include Ryan Messer, LaJuana Rinker, Bill Vorwald, Patty Nelson, and Glenda Penton. This year's conference will be held June 21-25.

The annual FSASE conference is a chance for all 67 Florida Supervisors of Elections, as well as members of their staffs, to come together to discuss new ideas and best practices. New laws and procedures are presented for the upcoming election cycle, and new board members are elected. Many informative lectures are presented as well on topics such as voter outreach, election night results, and security. Elections staff also get the chance to meet with vendors and see product demonstrations.

This year's conference is sure to be especially important. Several topics will be on everyone's mind, such as the 2012 deadline for replacing the AccuVote-TSX and a highly coveted Governor's seat.

The staff in the Walton County Elections Office is enthusiastic about participating in this year's conference and hopes to come back to Walton County with a wealth of knowledge and ideas for next year's big elections.
